Alpine Luxury, Gourmet & Spa Hotel Post Lermoos

Set in a unique panoramic position with spectacular views of Germany's highest peak, the Zugspitze, the 4-star superior Hotel Post Lermoos combines Alpine luxury, refined gourmet cuisine and excellent spa facilities. Run by the Dengg family for three generations, the hotel stands for the highest standards, genuine hospitality and a deep connection to Tyrol. As a member of Best Alpine Wellness Hotels and Genießerhotels, a collection of leading gourmet hotels, Hotel Post Lermoos offers discerning guests exclusive experiences throughout the year – where mountain scenery, fine dining and profound wellbeing come together.

Situated on the sunny side of the Zugspitze massif at around 1,000 metres above sea level, the hotel enjoys uninterrupted views of the surrounding Alpine landscape. Its location combines immediate access to nature with direct connections to the activities of the Tiroler Zugspitz Arena, in both summer and winter.

The 4-star superior main building features 60 suites in traditional Tyrolean style. Ranging from 45 to 127 square metres, they are appointed with box-spring beds, private balconies and traditional tiled stoves, offering generous space for relaxation, comfort and privacy. The main building is complemented by the neighbouring historic Postschlössl, dating back to 1560, which offers 16 charming junior suites.

Under the direction of award-winning chef Thomas Strasser, whose cuisine has been recognised with three Gault&Millau toques, the hotel presents international gourmet cuisine shaped by seasonal produce from its own farm, private hunting grounds and suppliers from Tyrol. The wine cellar, with over 1,000 labels, ranks among the most renowned and best-stocked in Austria.

The Post Alpin SPA and sauna world extend across 3,000 square metres and include a year-round heated indoor and outdoor pool, saunas, steam baths, an ice grotto, and dedicated massage and beauty areas. The Swiss stone pine panorama sauna house with brine pool offers spectacular views of the Zugspitze, particularly impressive during the guided sauna infusions led by the sauna masters.

Year-Round Alpine Experiences in the Tiroler Zugspitz Arena

Rising to 2,962 metres, the Zugspitze is Germany's highest peak and the defining landmark of the Tiroler Zugspitz Arena. Towering above the region around Lermoos, it offers a wide range of activities for visitors of all ages, in both summer and winter.

Hiking, Climbing and Nature Experiences in Summer

The Tiroler Zugspitz Arena is a paradise for hikers, climbers and nature lovers. The "Tiroler Zugspitzbahn" cable car, just five minutes from the hotel, takes guests to the summit of Germany's highest mountain in around ten minutes, while experienced mountaineers can enjoy the ascent to the summit cross on foot. From the panoramic viewing platform, breathtaking views open up across more than 400 peaks in four countries. Guided hikes, climbing tours, e-bike routes and golf on the 9-hole course complete the summer offering. Alpine coaster rides, mountain lifts and a wide range of outdoor activities make the region an ideal destination for families, active travellers and outdoor enthusiasts.

Skiing and Panoramic Winter Adventures

In winter, perfectly groomed pistes, modern lift facilities and the impressive Zugspitze panorama create ideal conditions for snow sports. At the Zugspitzplatt, Germany's highest ski area at 2,600 metres, visitors can enjoy varied slopes, fun parks and fast descents. Beginners, families and leisure skiers benefit from safe runs, ski lessons and dedicated children's programmes. Overall, the Tiroler Zugspitz Arena features nine ski areas with over 214 kilometres of pistes, as well as toboggan runs, winter hiking trails and cross-country ski tracks. Thanks to the central location of Hotel Post Lermoos, many of these experiences are right on the doorstep.

100 Years of the Tiroler Zugspitzbahn – A Celebration of Alpine Pioneering Spirit

Since its opening on 5th July 1926, the Tiroler Zugspitzbahn has shaped tourism in the region. As Tyrol's first cable car and Austria's second, it was a pioneering achievement that opened up the Zugspitze to visitors and created a lasting economic impulse. Marking its 100-year anniversary, the Tiroler Zugspitzbahn stands today for technical innovation, reliability and forward-thinking spirit – values that Hotel Post Lermoos has long felt closely connected to.
